

The airways are available to everyone issued a licence by the FCC. Satellite radio and XM is a frequency that should be made available to everyone. It is to FM, what FM was to AM. Change is not comfortable, but it is good. Everyone deserves change, and the XM subscribers are prepared to pay a personal premium to have the enhanced quality associated with the media and frequency. Cable TV is available with pay per view, why not the same for radio.